Christmas Eve Celebration

It's become a tradition for Edi and Richard to entertain us on Christmas Eve with lively holiday songs.

Jewel and Edi dance.

Edi sings to Abe.

Barbara feels the music.

Sandy and Edi dance.

Dish With Dining

Wow! What a way to ring in the New Year! We hope everyone enjoyed themselves at the New Year's celebration. It was a ton of fun, from the decorations to the food, entertainment and most of all, the dancing.

In February, we begin by celebrating love and Valentines' Day! Then, we have a special Presidential Dinner on Wednesday, Feb. 20.

Just a friendly reminder that Salad Bar items are not to be taken home in to-go boxes. If residents continue to take items home, we will have to discontinue the salad bar. As always, we ask that there are no walkers in the salad bar area, as well as if we ask to move your walker out of the main walk way areas, you allow us to do so as to eliminate the trip and fall risk. Thank you, and if you ever want to talk, we are available to do so. Our door is always open.

"I never say "no" to an opportunity to serve our residents and to improve their living experience."

Each day presents itself with the opportunity to serve others from the heart. We have the unique opportunity to enrich the lives of others and show our professionalism and genuine care. Listening to our residents' requests and practicing acts of kindness creates memorable experiences. We strive to place our residents at the center of everything we do.

*"A good head and a good heart are always a formidable combination."

Holiday Chimes Concert

Steve and his talented chimers played beautifully!

Florida Suncoast Chorus

The barbershop singers, including our own Clare M., entertained us.

Clare sings with his group.

Royal Palms' Players

We enjoyed the Royal Palms' Players singing traditional holiday songs.

The Players sing traditional songs.

Clare makes us laugh.
